The University
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE-NAMED ASSOCIATION are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located, adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected. The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street, lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone's throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading, there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be safe to build without any change of grade. It commands a

Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore, and has a soil of extreme richness. So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon

The Rev. E. Thomas, D. D.,
Is President of the Association; Lester L. Robinson, formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company, is the Treasurer, and Thomas B Lewis, formerly of Portland, Secretary.

Four lots, 25x120 feet each, constitute a share, costing $315—paid in monthly installments of $10 each, after the first payment of $20 has been made.

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J. L. PARRISH & CO.

It is an easy and a cheap way for young men to procure property which will in a few years make them independent.

PIONEER WASHER.
JAMES BRUSIE,
AGENT FOR OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THIS CELEBRATED WASHING MACHINE IS now for the first time introduced to the Oregon public. It is unrivalled for its simplicity, durability and the rapidity and ease of its action. Washing the dirtiest clothes perfectly clean in from five to ten minutes, with but slight labor, and lasting, with proper care, for ten years. The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing. It is easily worked by one person.

This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to old housekeepers and families about washing men and washing women.

It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it

The undersigned is now in the city of Portland, where he can be seen at Mr. O Kilbourn's Store, corner of Front and Yamhill Sts., East side, Portland, and is prepared to furnish the Machine to purchasers and also to sell and dispose of County Rights for the sale of the same

The Grain Crops.

The Times does not remember any similar uniformity of statements from all quarters respecting the prospects of the growing grain crops. While the late spring and continued rains damaged some crops and discouraged planters in the Gulf States, wheat and corn in South Carolina, Northern Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas, have never given better promise. From Wisconsin, Minnesota, Indiana and Michigan, reports are equally cheering.

New York, May 31.—The chief engineer of the Santiago publishes a card in reply to the reports affecting the officers indiscriminately. He asserts that his department was free from censure

New York, May 31.—Supreme Judge Barnard has decided that the provisions of the State statute empowering a State court to enforce licenses against vessels are in contravention of the Federal Constitution and acts of Congress.

The Board of Health reports that wooden pavements are unhealthy.

Sherman on the Indian Difficulties.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Gen. Sherman, in reply to certain citizens of New York, says: "The Indians number 200,000. Being pressed by the encroaching settlements they have become insolent, and in some instances positively hostile. Now they may combine and do infinite mischief. I have ably seconded the protection in a hundred places a hundred miles from each other. This required constant attention in the apportionment of forces so as to protect the most vital interests. I feel bound in duty and honor to stand by my post."

The Peabody School Fund.

The trustees of the Peabody school fund met on Tuesday, May 28th, for the purpose of promoting common schools by agencies and other means in the South. Normal schools are already established. The meeting adjourned to meet in January next.

Congressional Excursion to the West.

OMAHA, May 31.—The Senatorial excursionists reached here this afternoon and will go west to-morrow

Reilly has arrived here. He leaves for Washington to morrow.

Inauguration of a Statue of Henry Clay at Louisville.

CHICAGO, May 31. Hart's marble statue of Henry Clay was inaugurated at Louisville yesterday by one of the most brilliant demonstrations ever made in that city. The procession of civic and charitable associations was very long and imposing George D. Prentice wrote the ode for the occasion, and it is pronounced his ablest effort. Judge Bullock delivered the oration. Business was entirely suspended in the city.

Disinterment of the Dead on the Battlefield of Belmont.

OHIO, ILL., May 31.—The work of disinterring dead soldiers on the battle field of Belmont is being prosecuted. The examination would indicate great loss of life in that battle, probably reaching 1,000.

Accidents and Drowning.

DUBUQUE, IOWA, May 31.—A boat was carried over the Iowa Falls, yesterday, and a man was drowned.

ST. PAUL, MINN., May 31.—George Hover and Mrs. Stubbs were drowned in Lake Minnesota yesterday, by the upsetting of a boat.

Robbery and Outrage by Negroes—The Perpetrators Killed.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, May 31.—Three negroes deserted on Monday last from a colored regiment, robbed a house near Junction City, and ravished an aged lady. Fifty citizens pursued the negroes, who were overtaken and killed

Progress of the Railroad.

The Kansas branch of the Union Pacific Railroad is completed to Fort Ellsworth, 220 miles west of the Missouri river. The work is very vigorously pushed.

Charles O'Conor on the Slavery Question.

In the Maryland Constitutional Convention a delegate named Peters said he had received a letter from Charles O'Conor, expressing the opinion that slavery has never been lawfully abolished, the amendment to the Constitution not taking effect.

Iron-Clads Sold to France.

It is authoritatively stated that France has bought the Dunderberg and Onondaga to prevent them from falling into the hands of Prussia.

Reasons for Pardoning an Assassin.

The President pardons G. W. Gyle, the Alabama assassin because he is poor, half crazy and harmless.

The Ram Monowall Sold.

The bargain for the Stonewall is completed. A board of survey have examined the hull and ascertained that it is sound.

Voting will commence at eleven o'clock and will continue till five P. M Every name will be registered and the voting carried on as at ordinary elections, except that voting will be by ballot Any person receiving a plurality of votes shall be declared nominated. No person not a legal voter in the city of Portland, or who has not heretofore supported the nominee of the Union party, will be permitted to vote.

A B STUART,
WM. H. WATKINS
Central Committee.

An Intolerable Despotism.

Some incidents which have recently transpired in the South have given Copperhead editors a rare opportunity to dilate on the "horrors of military despotism." They are now certain that liberty is dead. Their worst anticipations have been realized. The history of the reconstruction act, (so the new declaration runs,) is a history of repeated usurpations, all tending to establish absolute tyranny, and to make life itself, under such conditions, intolerable. To prove this, let facts speak to a candid world.

The military satrap who commands in noble old Virginia,—Virginia mother of Presidents, now despoiled by Abolition rapacity of all but her glorious name,—has, in this age of enlightenment, in this, the nineteenth century, destroyed that most valuable of all liberties, the right of free discussion. Outrageous as this act of usurpation is, it is a fact, a shameful, infamous, horrible fact. One of the Richmond newspapers having spoken of those Virginians who incline to accept the results of the war as persons who are who are "ready to grasp the blood-stained hands of the authors of our ruin," that despot, Gen Schofield, gave the paper in question a friendly warning that such language as this, applied to the loyal people of the United States, had better not be repeated Who will now say that liberty is not throttled, strangled, dead? Where is the man who has any further hope that we shall ever recover our lost liberties? If rebels have not the right to publicly denounce loyal men as the "bloody authors of their ruin," what is there that is worth living for? Can any fiendish radical tell?

Another chapter in this history of usurpations. The fire companies of Charleston were preparing for a parade. The procession was ready to move with banners and music, when that heartless tyrant, Gen. Sickles, was informed that though the firemen carried a great variety of flags, the flag of the United States was not among them. Like another Haynau, he gave orders that as the national standard had been intentionally omitted, it should be borne at the head of the column, and that the procession could not move until this tyrannical order was complied with! What brave people was ever before so outraged, insulted, abused? Could the utmost effort of tyranny commit acts more atrocious?

And as if these instances of tyranny toward individuals were not enough, another military despot steps forward and outrages the dignity of a sovereign State in the person of her Governor. An individual bearing the honorable name of Jenkins is nominally Governor of the State of Georgia. He is one of those titular dignitaries who rose to an unsteady eminence under Johnson's now obsolete plan of reconstruction. This chivalrous Jenkins detests the laws of Congress on the subject of reconstruction, and in the old Democratic way advises the people of Georgia to treat them as nullities and not to obey them. That unfeeling despot, Gen. Pope, not having the fear of State sovereignty before his eyes, thereupon informs Jenkins that he must not use the influence his position gives him to subvert the laws of the land, and reminds him that such conduct will not be permitted for the future, especially as he (Jenkins) is only a Governor by sufferance and not by right. Now isn't this catalogue of usurpations the most astounding—the most horrible the world has ever seen? Isn't the despotism that does such things the most cruel that was ever imposed on a sensitive people? Will Americans think of it? What is the country coming to when a sovereign State can no longer nullify an act of Congress, and when a procession of rebels who have intentionally slighted the national banner, are obliged to march under it? Could tyranny, grinding, crushing, heartless tyranny, further go?

Virginia to the Oregon Democracy, Greeting.

We would respectfully call the attention of those Democrats among us who seem still to be deeply concerned about "negro equality" to the following series of resolutions adopted four or five weeks since at Petersburg, Virginia, by a Convention composed of native Southern whites, mostly former slave owners, who represent a great part of the landed interest of that State:

1. That we agree to accept and perform in good faith the terms and conditions prescribed by the Congress of the United States as the terms and conditions upon which Congress has agreed to restore Virginia to her place in the Union.

2. That we will therefore insist that a new Constitution shall be framed for Virginia, which shall provide that all men, white and black, without reference to previous condition of servitude, shall be perfectly equal before the laws both in respect to political privileges and power of civil rights; and that all laws creating distinctions or differences of any sort between persons of different races shall be unconstitutional, null and void.

3. That will support no candidate for the Convention who will not pledge himself to carry out in good faith the foregoing propositions; and to secure their adoption as a part of the fundamental law of Virginia we will cooperate cordially with all good men, white, or black, who honestly desire this result.

4 We invite the colored men of Petersburg, freedmen and the born free alike, to join us, to attend our political meetings, to participate in our deliberations, and express freely their opinions and wishes, and we assure them that they shall receive at the hands of us and respect to which they are entitled as equal participants with us in political power and legal rights.

Now we should like to ask our Democratic newspapers what it is that they hope to accomplish by their ceaseless din about "negro equality" when the representatives of the "first families of Virginia" are passing resolutions of this sort? Yet the constant theme of the Democratic newspapers of the Pacific coast is "negro equality" and the horrors attending it. Do they not perceive how ridiculous a figure they cut in this business when former slaveholders are conceding, nay, even demanding, the same rights and privileges for colored people that the whites enjoy? Will it be forever impossible for Democrats to learn that this mine is worked out? It would seem so, as they even yet continue their invective against the "Abolitionists" with the evident hope of putting them down by the mere mention of this once terrible word.

STATE ITEMS.

The Journal says's Base Ball Club will be formed at Albany.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated at Corvallis and Eugene City.

The municipal election at Corvallis will take place on the 10th inst.

A few days ago Wm. Benham, a youth about seventeen years of age was killed near Diamond Hill in Linn county by being thrown from a wild horse.

The Salem Review makes its appearance as a semi-weekly paper It comes out in a reduced form, but large enough to be as strongly Democratic as necessary.

During the months of March, April and May 157,000 pounds of bacon was shipped from Albany down the river. This explains where a part, at least, of the bacon comes from.

The Corvallis Gazette says: We have been shown a specimen of the finest and best coal we have ever seen on the coast, from a level recently discovered by Messrs. Pierce and Digleby on Bear Creek, a tributary of Mohawk river. It is said to be quite extensive, and near a point where steamboats may land to receive it on board. A company is being organized and will be incorporated in a few days to work this lead and others in its vicinity. There is immense wealth deposited in the mountains in the west part of this country awaiting the investment of capital and the application of labor to bring it into practical use. The inexhaustible coal mines, to say nothing of the mines of precious metals, will alone, at no distant day, prove a source of incalculable advantage to our people.

THE MOTHER'S REMEDY.—For all diseases with which children are afflicted, is Mrs WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the stomach and bowels, and during the process of teething, it gives rest and health to the child, and carries it safely through the critical period Hostetter, Smith & Dean, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

CURE FOR COUGH OR COLD.—As soon as there is the slightest uneasiness of the Chest, with difficulty of breathing, or indications of Cough, take during the day a few of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" Containing demulcent ingredients, they allay Pulmonary Irritation. Have them in readiness upon the first appearance of a Cough or Cold

A CARD.

The undersigned, voters of the city of Portland, take this mode of nominating THOMAS J. DRYER as a candidate for City Recorder at the ensuing election. Believing him well qualified in every way, and desirous of recognizing in a substantial manner his public services and active labors as a private citizen in promoting the prosperity of this city since its beginning in 1850, we cheerfully unite in presenting him to the voters for that office:

Portland, May 21st, 1867.

Messrs. H. W. Davis, C. R. Watkins, Chas. Hopkins, E. Bennett, J. F. Shartle, W. S. Harn, and others:

Gentlemen—I thank you for your kind wishes to me as expressed in your card, and accept your nomination, which I hope my friends the Union men of this city will concur, at the meeting to be held on to-morrow at the Court House Should I be elected, it will be my ambition to discharge the duties of Recorder of the city to the best of my ability, and without fear, favor, or affection, and with a single eye to the best interests of the city.

Yours respectfully, T. J. DRYER.

Portland, June 3d, 1867.

VAST CONTRAST.—What a great difference there must be between the climate of Russian America and the climate we live in; while the former is bitterly cold, the latter is extremely warm, and while other houses in this city sell goods at extreme high prices, KUHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, have come down to the other extreme by selling Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods, etc., at very low prices, of which every person is already convinced, and those who ain't, can be convinced by calling on them and be convinced.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.—Every one that visits BUCHTEL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, comes away perfectly satisfied with their bargains. The highest style of the art is reached in the beautiful Sun Pearls and Photographs.

CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000!

LOUIS A. CARNETT.

LOUIS A. CARNETT..... President and Manager.
JOHN HEWSTON, Jr.....Chemist and Superintendent.

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the intrinsic and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent. (here before a quarter) for all amounts over $1,000, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,000, and one-eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300 @ 600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600 @ 750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750 @ 940 parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.

Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be coined by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

CHARGES AT U. S. BRANCH MINT.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300 @ 600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 600 @ 750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 750 @ 830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coin, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost 1 per cent.—they must be sold at the following per rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

850 per to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents
845 per to equal San Francisco Assay & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents.

SERENADE TO SENATORS WILLIAMS AND CORBETT.—A very large concourse of our citizens turned out last evening to welcome home Senators Williams and Corbett. The Mechanics' Brass Band heading the procession, called first to Arrigoni's Hotel, where Senator Williams has rooms. The band played Hail Columbia, during which the cannon boomed a salute, after which Mr. Williams was introduced by Mr. J. H. Mitchell. Coming forward upon the balcony, the Judge was greeted by three cheers which rose spontaneously from the crowd below. In opening a brief speech, acknowledging the compliment paid him, Senator Williams said that to return to his home after an absence of over two years, under ordinary circumstances would have been to him an occasion of joy; but to be greeted by a public demonstration of this kind by a people with whom he had for so many years been identified and with so many of whom he had sustained relations of personal friendship and esteem, affected him more than he could find words to express. He had arrived here, meeting his old friends with a deep feeling of conviction that after all, there is no place on earth like home. When he left this city it was in the season of winter, when the clouds were dark upon the land and gloom was everywhere. Upon his return now, he found the clouds gone, the gloom dissipated, the grass green, the flowers blooming, and nature arrayed in that garment of sheen which declares that the winter is over and gone. When he left here to enter upon those duties which the State of Oregon had entrusted to his hands, the condition of the nation corresponded with the season—war clouds hung heavily upon fields of blood, and defeat, the nation was under a pall of gloom and uncertainty. Now upon his return the nation had emerged from the clouds which then overspread it, and had entered upon the spring of peace, the sunshine of returning prosperity, and the blooming of a national concord and prosperity which he trusted might continue forever [Applause.] Since he left here many events had transpired which would leave their mark upon all future history. Shortly came the electrifying news of the last decisive movements of Grant, Sherman and Sheridan [applause] and the end of that terrible revolt which had cost the nation such a sea of blood and a multitude of precious lives. Then while the nation was exulting in victory, while the congratulations of loyal men passed from mouth to mouth, from city to city, and State to State, that Americans had still a nation preserved, came the news like a thunder-bolt, of that foul, atrocious crime, the assassination of President Lincoln. Though the nation was horrified and stunned, they yet had the pledges of Andrew Johnson, and upon them they rallied to carry the country safely through the dangers which yet menaced it. The nation looked to him to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor. But the nation was doomed to yet another disappointment. Without discussing, in detail, the conduct of Mr. Johnson, he said he would contest himself by saying that his policy, soon after inaugurated, was in effect to place the leading men of the Insurrection into power. The rebels understood this, and coming about the [illegible] they succeeded in filling the offices with men [illegible] arms against the Union. While this policy of the [illegible] was rapidly drifting the country toward another national defeat, Congress came to the rescue and to prevent the tremendous sacrifices of the country, the trials of defeat, the triumphs of victory and the great waste of blood, from being wasted. [Applause.] The Senator alluded to the emancipation of the blacks and the wiping out of the great national stain of human slavery by saying that where he left here many [illegible] of men were in bondage; now, they are free and [illegible] with the attributes of manhood. [Applause.] Mr. [illegible] alluded briefly to the Atlantic telegraph and the [illegible] which had transpired in Europe and Mexico. [illegible] the steps by which the world is advancing to the [illegible] of those liberal ideas upon which our republic rests. New York, he said, is a great city; the government stretches widely across a great [illegible] many thousand miles from border to border, but though it be thousands of miles from our great [illegible] to the opposite verges of our territory, the traveler [illegible] from New York and comes to this distant shore, still, like the same protection, the same institutions, and the glorious old flag of the same government. He [illegible] here, growing up under that protection and fostering care, cities to rival in commercial importance, the great cities of the East. Russian America has been acquired, and he had no hesitation in saying, that the [illegible] to complete its symmetry, to fulfill its advancing [illegible] must have British Columbia. [Applause.] We must have a country which the American shall find his own from the isthmus of the north to the orange groves of the south. The American citizen must find himself at home every where in North America. Referring again to the political situation, the Senator denounced the doctrine of States Rights as understood and practiced by the South, as one of the most dangerous and pestilent of all political heresies. What the Government most imperatively needs is not secession of communities and States but a more perfect consolidation of the Union, more nationality of feeling, a greater national pride, a closer identity of interests, feelings and love of one, whole, undivided country. He alluded to the great progress which has been made in the construction of the Pacific Railroad and to the aid which has been extended to it by Congress. He said with confidence that at the next session, such [illegible] will be had as will secure the early completion of that part of the road through Idaho and Oregon. The time is not [illegible] when the iron horse shall make his way across the continent and when the steam of his nostrils shall [illegible] with the spray of both oceans. He indulged in some happy allusions to the enviable considerations of [illegible] in Oregon last year over all her neighbouring States in her [illegible] wealth, agricultural resources and [illegible] position, and congratulated her people upon [illegible] of a country so favored and so destined to [illegible]. Referring to his action as the representative of the State, he said he had tried at all times to promote the [illegible] interests of Oregon; but he wished the people to understand that the immensity of national interests which [illegible] arily suggested and overshadowed most [illegible] interests, had made it a difficult task to secure all that would seem to be justly our due. As to his political record, he said he thought it clear enough to be readily understood. He had uttered upon his office [illegible] clear conviction that, in the midst of [illegible] no temporary expedient could be [illegible], but that national legislation should go to the [illegible] of principle. In all matters of national politics he had acted upon this conviction, had been radical, believing as he had been said by a great mind, that "nothing is settled which is not settled right." He very bluntly [illegible] Andrew Johnson together as national [illegible], but both had proved instruments to secure great [illegible] triumphs of right principles. He said that he [illegible] character of what is sometimes called the Stevens [illegible] Reconstruction bill and sometimes the Sherman bill; that it eventually became a law without very much [illegible]; and that he believed it would prove an [illegible]. He had seen from the first [illegible] of the application of such a policy as the bill [illegible] forces and had urged it from the time he believed [illegible] first comprehended the national situation. By [illegible] the nation will be reconstructed upon the enduring principles of right, justice and harmony. He believed that the last Southern States would accept the Constitution and [illegible] plan; that before the next Presidential election, they would be represented in the Congress of the United States; and at that election, in the electoral college; and that a majority of them would vote with the Union party of the nation for its candidate for President—that [illegible] Union General, Ulysses S. Grant. [Applause.] In concluding, he said that he had come back here for instructions, and he hoped to meet all the people before his return to Washington; and that he should be able to act [illegible] from that not only a full and frank [illegible] of their views, but a statement of all their wants. The Senator then retired amid applause.

After Senator Williams had concluded his speech, the [illegible] preceded by a large number of citizens, proceeded to the residence of Senator Corbett. The Senator being called for, responded in a very happy manner, tendering his thanks for the demonstration and touching briefly upon the topics and measures of particular interest to [illegible] which have had his attention and that of the people during the brief time he has held a seat in that body. He spoke particularly of the commercial interests of Portland and of the State, and assured his audience that he would use his efforts and influence to promote these interests, alluded to the acquisition of Russian America, the share the Senators from the Pacific States had had in it and the advantages it would bring us, and promised to devote his best energies to the service of the State and of the Pacific coast. The Senator's remarks were [illegible], warmly applauded, and when he had finished the company took a respectful leave.

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED ODD FELLOW.—Some days ago the telegraph announced the death of P. G. Master A. J. Bohen of the California jurisdiction. The brethren in Oregon will remember the genial and noble-hearted brother who visited their encampments last year and will [illegible] to the following notice of him by the Alta: The sun of the 28th ult. "The Odd Fellows' Hall is draped in mourning, and an ever stream of citizens are constantly passing into the building to take a last gaze at the features of Past Grand Master James A. J. Bohen, whose body lies in state in Covenant Hall. The [illegible] was well known in this city; was at one time Deputy Superintendent of Public Streets, and Vice President of the Dashaway Association. But it was principally as a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows that he was prominently known to the public. Beginning as an initiate of Yerba Buena Lodge, No. 15, fourteen years ago, he had held almost every position in the gift of the Order. As Noble Grand of his Lodge as the Grand Master of the State, as Representative in the Grand Lodge of the United States, he had ever distinguished himself, and won in a remarkable degree the respect and confidence of his brethren. In the Patriarchal branch of the Order he was not less honored and esteemed. He has served as the chief officer of Golden Gate Encampment, No. 1, and as Grand Patriarch of the State. For several years previous to his death he was President of the Odd Fellows Hall Association. [illegible] in the history of the Order, in its teachings and [illegible] work, he was the brightest and most thoroughly posted Odd Fellow on this coast, and his decisions and [illegible] carried a weight equal to those of any other officer. [illegible] was it alone in the capacity of an officer that the rare [illegible] character of Past Grand Master Bohen was conspicuous, in his daily walk and conduct, his generosity, [illegible] abnegation of self in his efforts to aid others, the [illegible] of his heart and the strength and solidity of his judgment, were eminently marked. During his [illegible] and painful illness, wasting away, day by day, with a [illegible] so terrible as fastidious, scarcely a complaint escaped him, and his mind seemed occupied in devising [illegible] to benefit others. On last Thursday evening, word was brought to Yerba Buena Lodge that Brother Bohen was dying. The lodge was just opening, and it was with difficulty the members could be kept together [illegible] so to adjourn in an orderly manner. The residence of [illegible] was visited by an eager crowd of friends, [illegible] whom made their way into the chamber where the [illegible] brother lay. Waking from a slumber which [illegible] resembled death, he inquired the reason of the [illegible] in the company of his brethren. Being told that [illegible] to see him and learn his condition, he expressed [illegible], as he wished to speak with them before death. Having assembled his brethren around [illegible] bed, he proceeded to address them in words that will [illegible] be forgotten by those who heard him. He spoke of his approaching death with calmness and satisfaction, [illegible] of hope and confidence of a blissful hereafter, and in perfect peace with the world. He expected to live [illegible] and religious lives, to be charitable, [illegible] to be just. The ghastly looks of the [illegible], the strained and feeble voice, the convulsive [illegible] each of those present that the speaker [illegible] the antechamber of Death, gave to his words a power and significance beyond description. But he is [illegible] and his brethren mourn his loss as men seldom mourn except for a dear relative.

THE ALTA.—A telegram of last evening announces that the Alta will leave San Francisco for this port on Friday, the 7th.

I. O. G. T.—Mr. T. Bramhall, Deputy G. W. C. T., organized a lodge of Good Templars at Dixie Creek, Grant county, Oregon, on the 22d ult., called the "Dove" lodge, with 16 charter members, and fine prospects for steady increase and success. The officers are: William Morfitt, W. C. T.; Miss Carrie Bellinger, W. V. T.; Wm M Cleaver, W. S.; John E. Short, W. F. S.; A C Junkin, W. T.; Henry McEntire, W. M., Mrs. McClellon, W. I. G.; L. J. Poteet, W. O. G.; Mrs. Eliza Newton, W. R. H. S.; Mrs. Junkin, W. L. H. S.; O. L. Moore, W. C.; David Howard, P. W. C. T. and Lodge Deputy. A lodge of Good Templars was also organized at Canyon City, Grant county, on the 21st inst., by Mr. Bramhall, with Mr. S. Adams as W. C. T. This pioneer lodge in the mining region of Eastern Oregon is in the hands of good members, and starts on its work with every prospect of success.

BUOYS AT THE MOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA RIVER.—Under the immediate direction of Commodore John C. Carter, U. S. N., Inspector of the Twelfth Light House District, the work of re-buoying the north channel of the Columbia river as far as Astoria, has been completed and it is expected the work will shortly be extended through the Woody Island channel. The entrance to Grey's Harbor has also been sounded out and buoyed. Capt. West, the officer in charge of the work reports the south spit about one mile to the south of its position as shown by the U. S. Coast Survey in 1852, and is now marked by a mammoth buoy painted red, numbered 2 in 6½ fathoms of water. There is four fathoms water on the bar at the same stage of tide. The channel is straight and from one-half to three-fourths of a mile wide, running northeast and southwest by the compass.

CONFEDERATION AND ANNEXATION.—We received last evening, Victoria papers to the 29th inclusive. Both the Colonist and the News are still discussing with earnestness the questions of Confederation of the provinces and annexation to the United States. The former is an advocate of confederation and the latter leans decidedly toward annexation. By the way, we learn from a passenger by the last steamer, who seems to be well posted upon private politics at the Capital, that it is understood at Washington that the trip of Mr. Washburn of Illinois, to Europe, has more relation to the acquisition of British Columbia by the United States, than to the recovery of his health, which is the ostensible subject of his visit.

CAUGHT.—Young Fitzhugh, who absconded from the Dalles last week with about $9000 abstracted from the safe of E. P. Fitzgerald & Co., was arrested at Yreka yesterday morning by the sheriff and nearly all the money recovered. He left the Dalles on the 27th ultimo, crossed the Cascade mountains by the old Barlow road, passed through Oregon City and Salem on horseback, took the stage at Albany, and was intercepted at Yreka by telegrams from Sheriff Stittsel of Shasty. He confesses his crime and is apparently very penitent. An officer from Yreka started down yesterday with the prisoner in charge, and will probably arrive here on Friday next.

RECORDER'S COURT.—In this court, yesterday, a man named Thompson was charged with being drunk and disorderly, but having been in jail over night was let off. Joseph Brown, colored, on a surrounding witness; was held to appear and testify at the next term of the Circuit Court. A Mr. Norrmeer was charged with depositing a nuisance in his back yard. The case was continued till Thursday.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—The steamer Alert arrived yesterday morning from Oregon City with 1,205 bags of wheat for W. J. Bradbury, and 4,700 qr sks flour for Sarler & Co., amounting to about 230 tons. The Senator came down in the afternoon with 3,500 qr sks flour, 20 boxes produce, 11 hlf bbls do., 306 gunnies bacon, 0 bales woolen goods, 1 roll leather, and 1 roll bedding.

PERSONAL.—Judge Hough, of Idaho, who came passenger by the Oriflamme, called on us yesterday. The Judge will leave to-morrow morning for Ft. Lapwai, where he goes as special Indian Agent to hold a council with the Nez Perces Indians, to induce them if possible to accept the treaty of 1863 as ratified by the Senate. The council will be held on the 10th inst.

The first number of a paper called The Guard, published at Eugene City, has made its appearance. It is intensely Confederate, and we can see little use for such political papers since the surrender of Mr Lee. The Guard may, however, be useful in other respects, and our hope is that it may be successful according to its deserts.

A NEW DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER.—We have been shown the first issue of a new paper started at Port Townsend, W. T., under the proprietorship of Mr. Martin Cannavan, late a compositor in the Farmer job office, Portland. It is entitled The Dispatch, and is devoted to the interests of the Democratic ticket of Washington Territory.

COUNTY COURT.—The June term of the County Court, Judge Marquam presiding, was begun yesterday. Some preliminary probate business was transacted, but nothing determinate was done.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The June term of the Circuit Court will open next Monday, Judge Shattuck presiding, with a full docket.

DO YOU EXERCISE IMPROVEMENTS?—Agreeable in 49; so just control your ideas that BARMAN BROS., the Clothing and Neck-Tie leaders, will not be undersold. On corner Front and Morrison streets, (formerly City of Paris Store,) Portland.

WHO

A Kissing Song.

Let me kiss her for her mother—
The bewitching Polly Ann—
Let me kiss her for her brother
Or any other man.

Let me kiss her for somebody
Anybody in the world
With her hair so sweetly nut-brn
And so gloriously curled.

Let me kiss her for her fiddler
And I'll not care a cuss,
If he taps me on the shoulder
With his "belly" inside of hud

Let me kiss her for her daddy—
The pretty pouting elf—
Or if that don't suit the family,
Let me kiss her for myself

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

FROM A CORRESPONDENT OF THE OREGONIAN.

NEW YORK, May 1, 1867.

RELIGIOUS AND SOCIAL TOPICS

The gray days of the lenten season are passed, the forty days and forty nights which the Christian Church in all parts of the world commemorates with emblems of sorrow and mourning, have ended—Holy Week commencing on Palm Sunday, followed by Spy Wednesday, Holy Thursday and Good Friday, has been duly observed. Easter Sunday, the greatest festival in the Christian calendar, has brought its joyous worship and its triumphal anthems, the organs peal out the gloria in excelsis, and on every hand appear tokens of joy and expressions of praise for the resurrection of "the lamb who on Calvary's Mount was slain."

You Oregonians who live upon the utmost verge of the Christian Republic, and are less catholic than the denizens of this metropolis with its many ecclesiastical features of churches, cathedrals, heaven-pointing spires, synagogues, religious anniversaries, stock exchanges, and fashionable penitences, do not carry your observance of the calendar fasts and feasts, of Lent and Easter, so strictly as the devout Gothamites. Can it be said that you don't come up to the orthodox standard? But as good Bishop Warburton has said "orthodoxy is my doxy—Heterodoxy is another man's doxy," the charge may be only the tint in which colored speculum exhibits nature to the eye. New York has finished her Easter Sunday gloriously. In most of her churches flowers of the choicest and rarest qualities adorn the altar and all the precincts of the pulpit. So large was the demand and so thorough the early gathering of these floral offerings, that in one of the city theaters, a celebrated actress who was playing her farewell leave of the stage, to fill a bridal engagement, was compelled to forego the full shower of expected boquets.

Floral crosses and crowns of pure and spotless white, roses, lilies, japonicas and orange blossoms, lend a charm to the grand anthems, the solemn prayers and the extra inspirations of the sermons, which no other occasion of the church can give. The christian world everywhere unite in commemorating the birth of the Savior, on the 25th of December. We only have the traditions of the ancient church, and the decisions of the early ecclesiastical councils, for fixing that event in mid winter, and near the close of our calendar months. As the event of the resurrection is in nowise secondary to that of the nativity, why should not the church commemorate the one as fully and as universally as the other? The Catholic and the Episcopal churches are the only ones that give strict observance to the day of Easter, and we sometimes think the vast array of modern denominations in their zeal for a total separation from forms and ceremonies, from set days and festivals, have altogether overlooked and forgotten the fact that they are indebted to those old churches for having preserved and brought down through fourteen hundred years of the dark and slumbering ages, all which they have of Bible, creed, and sacred history.

The day upon which the commemorative festival of the resurrection occurs, comes to us with exactly the same authenticity as that of Christmas, the festival of the nativity. The mode of determining the day was established by the Council of Nice Anno Domini 325, more than fifteen hundred years ago.

It is celebrated on the first Sunday after the full moon, occurring immediately after the 21st of March, and is therefore never later than the 25th of April Since then it has been regularly observed by so large a portion of the church. So long as Christianity shall continue in every clime and in every age, so long may the festival of Easter be solemnly celebrated, and the happy salutation "Christ is risen" be given and returned.

We leave this matter to the dominoes, and proceed, simply remarking, that

"Wherever God erects a house of prayer,
The Devil always builds a chapel there;
And 'twill be found upon examination
The latter has the largest congregation"

Lent being ended, the beau monde of the city have laid aside all mourning habiliments, the signs of fashionable penitence, lavender and the neutral tints, and have emerged in the grandest display of toilets which has occurred for a quarter of a century. Society begins again its course of balls, parties, weddings, drives in the park, German, operas, soirees, dinners at Delmonico's, etc., etc., which make up the summum bonum or hyacinthe-istes of New York fashionable life. Our observation, however, tells us that there are fewer marriages in this city in proportion to the number of young folks, than in any other equal population in the whole country.

Young men can't afford to marry, unless they have an hundred thousand already settled, or marry a brown stone house, a four-in-hand turnout, a casket of diamonds, a chest of coupons, and merely take the bride as a little encumbrance on the property. The young women, for the most part, ain't fit to marry, if the reports of the health officers and officers of vital statistics are to be believed. They tell us that of all the infants born in New York, one-third die before they are a year of age, and one half die before arriving at five years. What is wanting in robust health is made up in cosmetics, corsets and consumption; what is lacking in flesh, is supplied in flounces, Italian cream, and "Madam Samel's mamorial balm."

As we are upon wedding topics, it may not be amiss to give the lady readers of the Oregonian a brief description of two weddings which have been the events of the week. One of them occurred at the Dutch Reformed Church on Fifth Avenue. Upon the pulpit were two massive vases of white roses and orange blossoms, and on either side were baskets of similar flowers. A canopy of flowers, borne by attendants, was suspended by over the bridal party at the marriage altar. The bride was attired in a gorgeous white satin, flounced with the point lace more than a foot deep, surmounting a fluting of most exquisite device. The skirt just clearing the floor in front, had a train at the back more than a yard in length.

"Her feet beneath her petticoat,
Like little mice stole in and out,
As if they feared the light."

A magnificent point-lace veil fell from her head, profusely arrayed with orange blossoms, and she carried in her hand a massive bouquet of white flowers. The married couple were attended with six bridesmaids and groomsmen, the former attired in white satin and veils of illusion. The floral decorations at this wedding cost over two thousand dollars.

The other wedding came off at a Baptist church and was even more gorgeous and costly. There were nine bridesmaids, and the toilets were beyond our powers of description. The ladies were dressed in a style which the milliners call a-la-pompadour, the hair being entirely white with powder. The bride wore a point-lace veil, costing twenty-five hundred dollars in gold, and the point-lace flounces cost more than five thousand dollars. Among the wedding presents were reported two solid gold meat-dishes. Of what use such a costly gift can be is beyond our comprehension.

How widely different are the notions of different nations with regard to the choice of days of the week for marriage. Friday is almost universally chosen as hangman's day, but for weddings there is a want of so general harmony of choice. In the United States Sunday and Wednesday are favorite days. In England one-third of all the weddings occur on Sunday, and Saturday and Monday are the next favorite days.

The Scottish report says that the most chosen day for marriage in Scotland, is the last day of the year, provided it does not fall on a Saturday or a Sunday. Few weddings are celebrated on Sunday in that country, and no true Scot would think of marrying on a Saturday, nor indeed begin any important work on that day. This is deemed the unlucky day in Scotland, and Friday is one of the favorite days. The people are impressed with the superstitious belief, that a marriage on a Saturday is likely to be followed by the death one of the parties before the year expires, or that if both survive, the marriage will prove unfruitful.

Your readers will probably be surprised to hear that Mormonism flourishes in this city, and that at the celebration of Easter Sunday, there were about 300 of the faithful gathered together.

Reports from London say that they are prosperous in the vicinity of that city, that "the Saints who meet once a week in Kensington Hall are rapidly increasing in numbers and influence. The missionaries sent abroad by Brigham Young are hard at work and having much success in Germany, Norway and Sweden, as well as in England and Wales. They are educated, shrewd and plausible men, and find credulous people in every country they visit."

YIELD OF THE POORMAN MINE

As anything reliable about the Poorman mine in Owyhee may be interesting to your readers, we are enabled to give the following authentic items of the result of the working on that famous lode in 1866. The whole amount of ore crushed, the value of the bullion produced, and the financial condition of the New York and Owyhee company are shown in the annual report of W. D. Walbridge, Esq., special agent, as made to the trustees of the company at their late annual meeting in this city

Name of mill	Tons ore	Oz. bullion	Value
N. Y. & Owyhee	880	147,060 17	$255 583 50
N. Y. & Ore Fino	3715/4	116,753 91	203 536 71
Ainsworth	362 3/4	35,176 22	61 220 81
Jackson "	369 1/4	7,521 20	25,306 56
Total	2,382 1/4	306,215 30	$546,091 59

The average yield of all rock reduced is $229 45 per ton, and the entire cost for mining, milling, etc., $16 07 per ton The great majority of the ores were found too rich for any of the mills to work properly, especially to keep up to their stamping capacity, and some new machinery must be introduced to facilitate the reduction of silver ores so rich as the Poorman produces The entire cost of the mill of this company is reported at over $147,000 in gold—and the lawyers have come in for their share, as they have been paid over $14,000 in the same material. But happily it is now reported on good authority that all the vexatious litigation which hung as an incubus around the Poorman mine, had been adjusted and compromised.

A settlement of the suits commenced by A. E. Tilton, John Ebner and W. F Ray against P F Bradford, has been effected. The New York and Owyhee Company purchased from Mr Bradford his interest of four hundred and fifty-seven and one half feet in the mine, for which additional stock of the company is issued to the amount of four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, thus increasing the capital stock from one million and a quarter to one million and seven hundred thousand dollars. The company are now in peaceable possession of the sixteen hundred feet which constitutes the entire discovery claim, and grand results may reasonably be anticipated for the year 1867

The agent concludes his report with the following cheering words

While no man can prophesy what may be under ground, yet reasoning from those known laws governing mineral deposits, and judging from the expressed opinion of those who, by scientific knowledge or experience in mines and minerals in all parts of the world, ought to be competent judges, and who have examined the "Poorman" mine in its various stages of progress, and looking to the very small amount of ground which has been worked upon the lode, and which has so far yielded over eight hundred thousand dollars in gold and silver, I am constrained to say to you, and believe, that in this property you have a mine of immense value, whose future will show a product of the precious metals rivalling that of any mine heretofore known, justifying in my opinion, any reasonable expenditure to reach its buried riches cheaply, for years to come.

The stock of this company increased by this last purchase, to the magnitude of seventeen hundred thousand dollars, cannot however be purchased at much if any less than par value.

Messrs. Walbridge, the agent, and Preston, the attorney of the company, depart on the steamer to-day for Owyhee via San Francisco. Mr. H. S. Jacobs, formerly of Portland, and the inventor of a patent wagon wheel dressing machine, also leaves this city for Idaho by the overland route this week. He goes out as agent and superintendent for two new mining companies—one "The New York and Iowa Mining Co.," whose mills are to be erected in Flint District; the other, "The Poorman Gold and Mining Co." organized under the laws of this State, for working the "First Extension North of the Poorman"—six hundred feet. The machinery which he has selected in this city and shipped by steamer to San Francisco, is favorably known here as the "Dodge Mill and Furnace," comprising a patent crusher and rollers, shaking tables, and the Freiberg hand process.

Another New York company has recently been organized to erect a mill, and work the Forest Queen lode at Rocky Bar in Idaho Territory. Their new machinery is shipped by steamer to-day as slow freight, and the agent will follow on the next steamer. There is yet another bran new process, consisting of "Hughes' Atmospheric Stamps" and "Wycoff's Amalgamators," both which seem to work admirably here in the shop, on prepared material, and of course we are expected to do the same good thing at Rocky Bar. We hope they won't have prove refractory, but "Mr. Experiment" is a very expensive and rather uncertain mining agent in a new country.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Among late arrivals of Oregonians, we notice Lieut. W. V. Spencer, who has recently been appointed to the 18th U. S. Infantry, and who has to travel to the vicinity of Fort Benton on the Missouri river to join his regiment; also, Lieut. Halloran, fresh from the Mountaineer tripod, appointed to the 13th Infantry, which regiment is now on duty in the vicinity of Washington City.

We, recently met Gen. Cuvier Grover, brother of L. F. Grover, Esq., of your city, who having been relieved from recruiting service, shortly goes to Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Report says that ex-M. C. and Gen. Rousseau of Kentucky, who was confirmed a Brigadier at the late session of the Senate, will be ordered to the Department of the Columbia.

Occasionally a miner from the Pacific comes to grief in this wicked city, while "doing the town and seeing the sights," as witness the following evidence of the perversity of human nature, playing pranks upon an Idahoan, which we clip from a morning paper:

ROBBERY IN THE BOWERY.

A gentleman named Wm. F Ray, who is at present stopping at Earl's Hotel, went to witness the performance at Tooey Pastor's Opera House on Thursday evening, and just after he had passed out of the hall and gained the sidewalk in front of the theater, he was involuntarily borne along for some distance by the crowd which was coming out of the place. So soon as he had extricated himself from the motley gathering he very naturally put his hand to his pocket and found that his pocketbook, containing a one $500 bill, three $100 bills, a note drawn by Geo. G. Snyder for $93, a note drawn by the same person for $500 payable in gold, and a note drawn by Tuttle & Lawrence for $500 was stolen. It is almost needless to state that the police have not as yet discovered the perpetrators of this robbery.

Rebuilding of Idaho City.

The Idaho World of 26th of May contains the following article:

At four o'clock Friday afternoon, of last week, the best business portion of Idaho City was in ashes. Burning, cindered, blackened remains were all that told of the large, busy, bustling city of that morning. A week has passed. And in this week the unquenchable spirit and unconquerable determination of this community in business energy has been grandly and wonderfully exhibited. Already one hundred buildings—stores, shops and dwellings—have been put up over sites in the burnt district, and as many more will be put up during the ensuing fortnight. As early as Saturday evening, several had shanties improvised, and commenced trade in them. The city will be quite its former self in a very little while.

We are glad to learn that the first estimate of the loss—$1,000,000, as we gave it last week—was greatly in excess of the actual amount. The first estimate was based on the belief that large amounts of goods stored in cellars had been destroyed; but, fortunately, these cellars withstood the fire, and the destruction of merchandise is small when compared with the original estimate of loss. The principal item of loss was in buildings. Insurance was effected on the whole amount of property destroyed to about $76,000, we hear, and this so much further reduces the actual loss to our own citizens.

There has been no increase of prices in goods by any of our merchants because of the fire, no increase in the price of lumber—which is furnished readily at $50 per 1000 feet; and no increase in wages, so far as we have heard, save by the carpenters, who asked $8 per day before the fire, and now charge $10 per day.

This is the second time Idaho City has risen from the ashes, and speedily been rebuilt. Two years had hardly elapsed when the devastating fire of May 18, 1865, was succeeded by the terrible conflagration of May 17, 1867. May the full calamity never again occur. Our citizens will avoid, in building this time, some of the hazards of fire which prevailed before. Lower frames will be raised, and better attention will be given to providing means of safety against the devouring element in other ways The city will go on, prosper and flourish. There is yet wealth, wonderful energy, and great enterprise left to our citizens, and the rich and extensive mines of this Basin will furnish the means, and attract the trade and population hither, to build up and maintain a large and enduring city here.

The receipts into the various treasuries of the Odd Fellows Order during the year 1866, is stated to be $1,800,000, of which $96,000 were expended for burials of deceased members, $93,000 for the relief of widows and orphans, and $630,000 for the relief of mendicant and indigent brethren, making a total expenditure for charity and humanity of $819,000 The remaining million of the funds were consumed in expenses, such as salaries, fees, commissions, agencies, rents, paraphernalia, etc

The Land Office at Springfield, Missouri, disposed of 32,091 acres of land to actual settlers, under the Homestead law, during the month of March.

FROM OWYHEE

STOCK RUN OFF.

Last Saturday, 17th inst, between two and three o'clock P M., the Indians made a raid on Summit Springs Station, on the Humboldt road, driving off twenty-one head of horses—sixteen belonging to Hill Beachy's Stage Line, one to a man named Clark and four belonging to a team which had just driven up and turned out. There were about twenty four Indians in the band, who came up a gulch southwest of the Station, where they came suddenly upon a man hunting, (with a Henry's rifle) who made fight. They came up within eighty yards, filed right and left and passed on both sides of him, firing twice as they did so. He fired at them twelve shots, several of which are supposed to have taken effect Passing on, they made directly for the band of stock, giving the war whoop as they went. As soon as discovered from the wagon, efforts were made to save part of the stock, but without avail. When all efforts to get between the Indians and stock became futile, the owner of the wagon stopped and fired five shots at them as they passed, while Corp Cluney and another man also discharged their pieces once. It was thought two Indians and one horse were wounded, but none killed The Indians drove the stock northwesterly, winding in towards the Malheur mountains. They were pursued half an hour after the raid by six mounted men from Flat Creek and two men from the Station for about nine miles, but the horses being weak, they were compelled to give up the chase The day after the raid, two men were out about a mile and a half from the Station and found a horse—with a raw-hide Indian saddle on—tied to a sage-brush. The saddle was covered with blood—leaving a fair inference that the Indian had been badly wounded and had crawled off among the rocks and was probably dead. The Indians were mounted on splendid horses—said to have belonged once to the 2d Cavalry.

On the 16th the Indians drove off seventeen head of horses and mules from Fred Brougham's Ranch, on Flat Creek, twenty miles below Camp McDermit. This haul, with the one noted some days ago, sweeps nearly clean his entire ranch

MINING ITEMS.

Pure silver has been taken out, during this week, of a small stream which is a feeder of the Noonday, and lying near the blacksmith shop of the Ore Fino & M. S. Co. The seam is very narrow and not very long in which the very rich ore is found. A ton of ore showing free gold and silver has been extracted. How deep it is no rich is of course unknown. The ore will be worked in the Enterprise Arastra.

The Lincoln Mill has been rented by Messrs. Ford and Gafford, of the Owyhee Gold and Silver Mining Company, and will commence running as soon as necessary repairs can be made.

Burnham & Jackson have finished their contract on the Hays & Ray. Their tunnel—over 400 feet long—taps the Poorman 250 feet below the surface. They made good time.

The Woodstock boys will be sending ore to the stamps after a few days' work on the road Have the water out of their shaft and work progressing on the ledge.

Spirit of the Eastern Press.

The political movements which are going on in the South continue to be a principal topic of discussion in the Eastern press. The New York Herald remarks on this subject:

The problem which excites the greatest interest just now, particularly among politicians, is, what party will be able to get the negro vote. The Republicans are moving heaven and earth to secure it. This is the object of the missionary labors of Senator Wilson and other Northern orators. At present they seem to have the best chance. The old Democrats are nowhere in the struggle. In fact, they appear to have given it up. We do not hear of a single Northern Democrat entering the lists against Wilson and the other Republicans. The old Southern Democrats are equally apathetic. They appear to have no idea of resuscitating their party in the South. Indeed, one of their leading men, Governor Orr, of South Carolina, advised the colored people, in a speech at Columbia, not to attach themselves either to the Democratic or Republican party at present, "but to wait and array themselves upon the platform of a national Union party, that could be occupied in common by both races South and the people of the North.

The New Haven Palladium, one of the ablest Republican papers in New England, in discussing the same question, takes occasion also to show that true policy demands the organization at the South of a Republican party among the whites. It says:

This process would not be difficult. There has been for years in the Southern States a large class of men who had little sympathy with the Democratic party. They may be described as Henry Clay men as accurately as by any term. In the tornado of the rebellion this class was swept into the Democratic ranks; but they have never felt at home there, and now with slavery eradicated and rebellion crushed forever in this country, there is no impediment in the way of their return to a party organized in opposition to the Southern Democracy. To this nucleus would ally themselves all Northern emigrants, the large class which in any country become dissatisfied with a party too long in the ascendancy, and many of the young men of the South just coming upon the stage. Such a party would at once bring to its aide the large majority of the negro vote, and in this way not only prevent the defeat of the Republican party in the immediate future, but give the South what its politics now pre eminently needs—two opposing parties not based on race divisions.

The Albany Journal mentions a late important discovery that has been made in the South:

Since the negro became a citizen, Southern philosophers have made a new discovery. Formerly, in their ethnology, he was a connecting link between man and the gorilla. A new edition of Natural History "revised and improved," unsettled this theory. He in now received, not only as a human being, but as a being of considerable capacity. The Mobile Register says. "The negro, under favorable circumstances, is capable of marked development;" and the Lynchburg Virginian goes a step further, declaring that "the negro is not only a thinking being; he possesses a degree of aristocratic feeling and pride which only those can understand who have been much in contact with him!" That will do Those poor, despised, downtrodden chattels of five years ago, are now men and women, "capable of development," and not only this, but aristocrats, with pride and self-estimation. What a marvelous metamorphosis.

The friends of liberty in the South, however sagacious, cannot too fully understand that they are playing for a great prize. The old slave-masters appreciate the magnitude of the stake, and, although compelled to carry the heavy burden of treason, are not without hope that their experience as party managers in other days will enable them to recover their lost leadership, and manipulate the Southern future as they manipulated the Southern past. It would be folly to conceal that the next Presidency is the objective point to all the parties to this great struggle. If by any accident, such as the insane infatuation of the freedmen voting for their enemies, the Copperheads of the North and the rebels of the South could obtain enough electoral votes to secure a successor to Andrew Johnson, like Jeremiah S Black, Clement L Vallandigham or Horatio Seymour, treason would achieve a triumph far more decisive than if Grant had surrendered to Lee.

Divers good people in the East still cling to the idea that the Indians can be civilized, notwithstanding the fact that the experience of three or four hundred years is somewhat unfavorable to the supposition. The New York Times says:

Suppose the Indians reduced to quietness once more, either by hard fighting or by new treaties, what will then be done with them? It has been suggested by those who have been most successful in dealing with the different tribes, that they should be withdrawn from the frontier and placed on reservations as some of the Western States, where they may be brought in contact with civilization These agents represent that the Indian takes to agricultural pursuits almost naturally, and that any tribe properly located and fitted out would immediately become self supporting. The experiment is at least worth trying. It certainly is possible to find honest and capable men to deal with them, and when that is done the battle is half won.

According to Lloyd's of London, the Bengal British ship Canton is reported to have left Sitka, on the northwest coast, in 1816 and was never more heard from. According to the report of Captain Nichols, of the wrecking schooner Caroline Mulli, of San Francisco, the Canton must have been wrecked on Cornwallis or Gaspar rico Island, lying in about 14 deg. 30 min. north latitude and 169 deg 30 min. east longitude. Capt Nichols recently visited it in his expedition to Wake Island. He brought away the cost of arms found on the stern of the vessel, and also found other relics, such as old wooden plates, spoons, etc., such as are known to be used by Lascar seamen, who never eat from tin or metal plates, nor use anything but wood as eating utensils Capt. Smith, Harbor Master's Clerk, has examined the coat of arms and pronounces it to be a fac simile of such as were formerly to be found upon all the East India Company's vessels The elephant figures quite largely as one of the characters The Canton was mostly built of teak wood, which now remains entirely undecayed, although lying upon the Island over fifty years. One of the ship's hatchways was thrown upon the beach, and through the opening there is a tree now growing of the size of a man's leg The old anchors, chains, etc, are now rusting away on the beach. The ship's hull is not yet broken up

Capt. Long, of the American whaleship Ark, reports that he visited Cornwallis or Gasparico Island in 1857, and again in 1860, and that in 1857 one of the masts was still standing This is an uninhabited island, lying in a part of the Pacific seldom visited by ships.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER,

after a thorough trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself THE MEDICINE OF THE AGE. Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an Internal and External remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased, and wholly upon its own merits The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in case of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy in case of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the greatest medical discoveries of the nineteenth century.
